V.

ORDER

In his reply, Mr. Wirth points out that there are significant commonalities between his and Plaintiff Brandyn Gayler's claims, and that Defendants overstate the differences between the claims. The Court acknowledges these arguments. However, the Court's decision to deny Mr. Wirth's motion was based on a finding that joinder would significantly prejudice both the Plaintiff and Defendants. Mr. Wirth's reply does not persuade the Court otherwise. The Court therefore finds no cause to withdraw or amend its order (ECF No. 105).

DATED: May 22, 2017.
